Nakia D. Parker is a College of Social Sciences Dean's Research Associate in the Department of History at the University of Michigan. Dr. Parker is a historian of nineteenth-century U.S. slavery, African-American, and American Indian history. She is currently working on her book manuscript, Trails of Tears and Freedom: Black Life in Indian Slave Country, 1830-1866 which examines the lives of enslaved and self-liberated individuals of African and Afro-Native descent in Choctaw and Chickasaw communities in nineteenth-century Indian Territory (present-day Oklahoma).
